Excellent Events Experienced

ABOUT US

eCubed Global is a premier conference and event management group, serving clients from all industries including healthcare, technology and retail consortium's. eCubed Global also has a specialized team with a profound specialization in the financial services and wealth management industry.

Let our 30+ years of experience help you experience excellent events!

Driving business growth and brand loyalty are among the top business objectives for any sized business in every industry. We believe that our expertise, our passion and decades of experience, combined with our client service will help you reward and motivate your internal staff and clients through well thought out conferences and unique trips and incentives in any destination across the Globe.

Based out of Toronto, Ontario in Canada, with clients around the world, we provide our clients not only with exceptional event management services, but provide insight to global trends in the banking, financial services and wealth management industries helping you add perspective to your conferences and business sessions - that is what makes eCubed Global unique.

It is well known that planning a group travel incentive program involves far more than booking airline tickets and making hotel reservations. The same can be said for conferences, planning a conference for a large group of attendees involves far more than finding a venue. The goal is to arrange a results-driven, action-oriented and measurable experience for your organization that will help you educate, motivate and reward your team and clients.
